% Mr. Paterson.

Dear Sir:

I wrote you on July 23, 1941, relative to a bill that I had paid in an effort to assist your adolescent Daughter. To date I have not had even the courtesy of a reply from you.

I am writing not to tell you that unless I receive satisfaction from you this week, I will be forced to take steps to try and collect the bill. I would dislike very much to do anything to embarrass you, but due to the fact that you are gainfully employed, I do feel that the bill should be taken care of by you, as the Child's Father.

I will expect you to come to see me at #71 Crawford Street, Newark, N. J., which is now my present address. You will be able to see me at all most any hour.

Very truly yours,
